Foreword

This is your book and our baby. We will remember the long hours of sweat and toil, miles of sidewalk trudging, the click of typewriters far into the night, the problems of making a photograph, and the joy in the finished product. You will remember the persons and events that we have recorded, the enjoyment of our school life together, and the joys and sorrows of our years as classmates. This book is for you to enjoy — the record of this year's school history.

DEDICATION

We, the Annual Staff of 1952, dedicate our BANTAM to our English teacher and Scarlet and Black advisor, Mr. Louis Quigley. We recognize and appreciate his tireless efforts and enthusiastic interest, not only in the Journalism and English departments, but in the activities of the entire student body.

Mr. Quigley has proved by his cheerfulness and helpful attitude that he is leading us, as a Family, along the road of education to a much better tomorrow.

To Mr. Quigley, who inspires both students and faculty to higher goals and greater accomplishments, and who deserves the respect of all who know him, we gratefully dedicate our yearbook.

Mr. Harmon

This yearbook pictures to us a storehouse of treasure, full of gems, the memories of our experiences. Pearls recall cherished friendships; stones are records of those rough spots over which we have had to climb that have tested our courage and perseverance.

The stones, unpolished and illshaped, are the true values of our treasure for they have strengthened our character, giving us the experiences that have really prepared us for the life ahead.

In years to come when we take inventory of this storehouse of treasure, we will not only recall the happiest days of our lives, but those that have given life its truest meaning.

These are riches beyond value—a life for tomorrow.

Board of Education

Meeting once a month to better school conditions for us students, the Board of Education receives little recognition. The school board sets up standards for the school and discusses school problems. Kenneth Grim is Chairman of the Board of Education and C. S. Richardson is Clerk.

Mr. Glenn Taylor, Mr. C. S. Richardson, Mr. Conrad Peterson, Mr. Raymond Alboucq, Mr. Kenneth Grim, Mr. William Harmon.

Mr. Kramer

Our school derives its strength from its unconquerable spirit of boys and girls who have the courage and integrity to face issues, young men and women from all walks of life who, working and playing together, have brought our high school to its present position of leadership among the schools of the state.

Our annual portrays for everyone that unified spirit among all activity groups.

Much of the strength of any school lies in the unity of a good strong Family life. Our annual staff has adopted as its theme, "The Family Album," feeling that we really are one big Family of students and teachers. Like all large Families, we have our ups and downs. However, we have much to be proud of in the loyalty and courage of its members.

Congratulations to the staff and Miss Hunton for such a nice Family Album.

Student Council

In order to form a Student Council, each home room has an election of a representative and an alternate. The duty of the alternate is to attend the Student Council meetings when the representative is unable to be there. Discussion of all problems that arise in our school life takes place at these Student Council meetings. It also has the duty of passing on all awards made by different organizations.

Class of '52

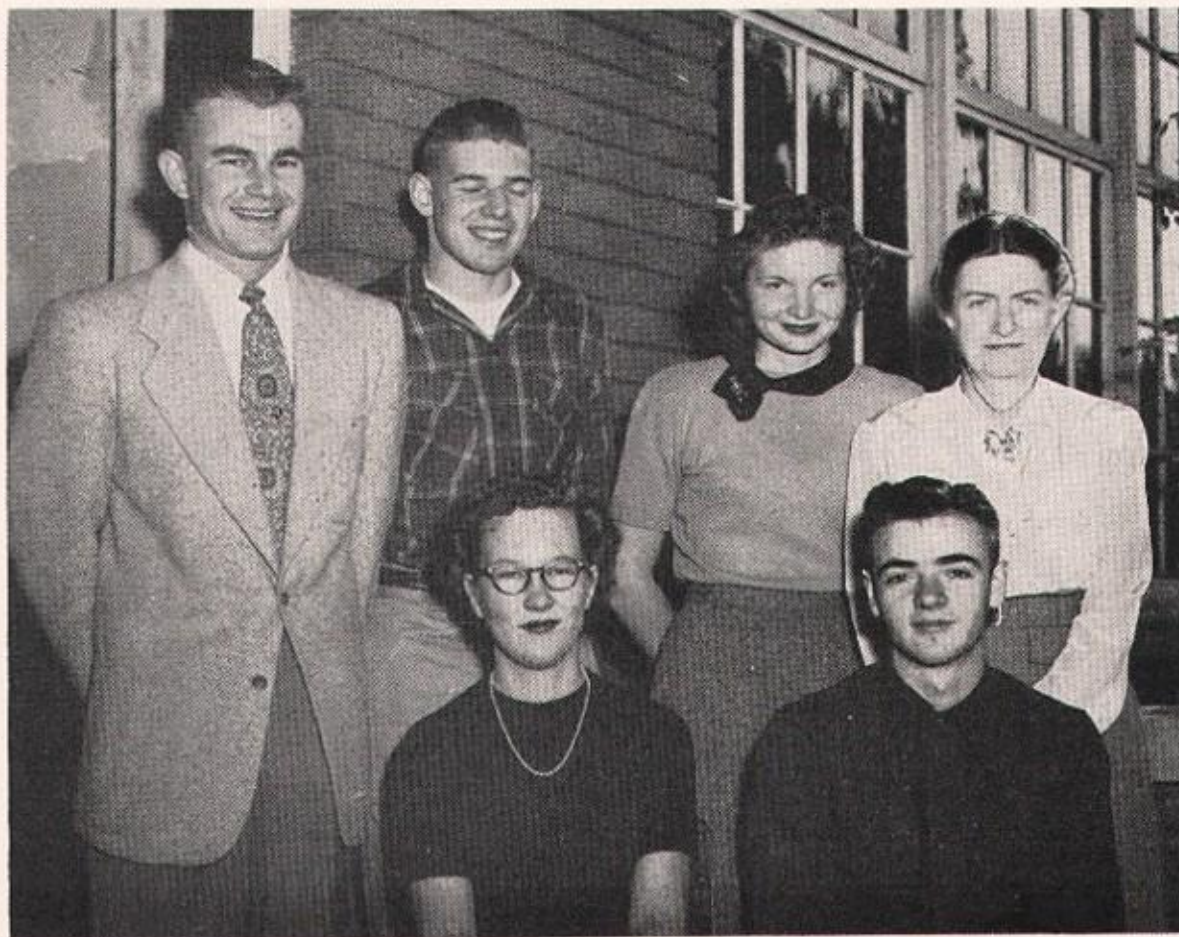

As senior members of the Bantam Family, we have now come to one of the turning points of our lives—Graduation. Our decent upon C. H. S. was made with an uncertainty as to which road to take. The traditional bonfire was built and the decorations for Baccalaureate were completed, with still very little thought attached to the future.

Having a little experience to guide us, our Junior year began with the fall dance, "Strictly Corn," and participation in the all-school play, "The Charm School." We then made a hit with our class play, "Who Killed Aunt Caroline?" and finished with a very successful prom, "Rainbow Rhapsody."

Then, seemingly from nowhere, came our most important year which began with our Senior class play, "Pure As the Driven Snow." Our Senior ball, "Winter Wonderland," was an evening to be long remembered. With the lighting of the "C" on Thanksgiving, our sneak in the spring, and finally "C" Day, we ended three successful years at C. H. S. With our prized diplomas we bade our alma mater a sad farewell, looking toward the future ready for greater achievements.

We Juniors played an important part in the family of C. H. S., contributing a lot of spark and ability to sports, studies and social activities.

Adding to the Family fun, we gave our annual harvest dance, "Hillbilly Jamboree," in October. Our first chance for the dramatic flair gave us a good opportunity to show what we could do. We provided entertainment by giving the three-act play, "Men Are Like Streetcars," on March 21. The rest of the Family gave us the high honor of attending our first formal dance, the Junior Prom, on March 28. Chosen for our theme was "A Garden in the Rain."

The head of our part of the Family was Ed Sand, who proved to be a good leader. He was ably assisted by George Hibbs, Vice-President; Joanne Kube, Secretary; Dixie Gross, Treasurer; and Jack O'Shaughnessy kept the order in our Family meetings as Sergeant-at-Arms.

With our decorations for Commencement in May, we assisted in giving the bigger part of our entire Family something to remember.

Next year we will have a still more important part in the Family as we play the leading role as Seniors.

This part of our family was headed by Kenny Davidson, who did a good job of leading us forward as Sophomores. His helpers were Mickey O'Shaughnessy, Vice-President; Catherine Weitz, Secretary; Jay Florance, Treasurer; and Charles Poole, Sergeant-at-Arms. We were advised under the experienced hand of Mr. Frank Mosher.

Our part was small, but we believe that we did a good job by participating in studies, sports, music, and social activities.

We were in the limelight in the fall when we prepared one of the best bonfires and Bengal the students have seen. Again in the spring we were given a chance to prove our ability by decorating the gym for Baccalaureate, and we think we did a grand job of sending our big brothers and sisters on their way. Classwork, too, found us to be eager and diligent workers.

Next year we will return as Juniors, and look forward to a bigger and better part of our school life.

At the start of the year the inexperienced Annual Staff undertook a great job to publish a successful "Bantam."

The editor, Kathleen Jones, put in countless hours of hard work to put out this fine book, along with the able photographers, Deane Jolstead and Mickey Hughes.

Miss Hunton, the advisor, did a swell job and was willing to help under all conditions.

Other members of the staff are: Mary Jane Isaksen, Assistant Editor; Lenny Stroup, Sports Editor; Joyce Sloppy, Copy Editor; Jeanette Ebert, Secretary; Dan Kube, Business Manager; Don Vail, Assistant Business Manager; Wilma McFarland, Circulation Manager; Rae Wilson, Senior Personnel; Jeanette Woody, Junior High Personnel. Scarlet and Black Weekly accounts of the news and activities were given to us by the Scarlet and Black. The staff did a fine job this year and deserves many thanks.

During the first semester, the second year Journalism students carried on an old tradition familiar only to journalists, namely, the usage of terms such as heads, units, deadline, and many others. Along with learning these familiar terms, they did the editing while the first year students were learning the basic fundamentals of journalism and doing some fine reporting.

Future Homemakers of America

One of the busiest organizations in our Family was the Future Homemakers of America. The F.H.A. started working early in the fall and didn't stop until late in the spring. Some of the numerous activities in which they have participated are a regional convention at Pomeroy, two parties honoring the Children's Home at Lewiston, packing a Christmas basket for a needy family, selling greeting cards, and having candy and baked food sales.

In March the club sent Mary Isaksen, Helen Estlund, Barbara Paulson and our advisor to act as secretaries for the F.H.A. State Convention in Seattle. April saw the F.H.A. Family going to Spokane to participate in a demonstration. Joyce Sloppy was elected to give our chapter's demonstration. The last F.H.A. gathering was the spring picnic held in May. All the members agree that this was one part of our Family that grew and prospered throughout the school year.

The officers for F.H.A. this year were Mary Isaksen, President; Carol Myers, Vice-President; Marilyn Grasser, Secretary; Joyce Sloppy, Treasurer; Jeanette Ebert, Historian; and Gerry Yochum, Reporter. The advisor for the Future Homemakers of America was Mrs. Ena Cunningham.

Future Farmers of America

The F. F. A. Chapter is one of the most active organizations in our school life. They start their work early in the fall, and they are not through with their work until late in May.

The Chapter entered ten different contests throughout the year, consisting of crop judging, parliamentary procedure contests, livestock judging, and public speaking contests. They won a second place medal at Rockford, Washington, and a third place medal at Clarkston in crop judging contests. In a parliamentary procedure contest, Larry Landkammer won third place individually acting as secretary. David Jenkins, a Sophomore, won fourth place in a public speaking contest in the sub-district tournament. All in all, this busy family has found time to enter ten different contests. However, they were unable to place in all of these.

One of the biggest activities the Future Farmers of America undertook was initiating several Freshmen into the organization. This has been a great benefit, not only to the high school group but also to the Freshman boys.

The Farmers elected their leaders early in the fall and these boys have led them through a very successful year. The officers are: Norman Van Tine, President; Joe Noyes, Vice-President; Larry Landkammer, Secretary; Glen Cannon, Treasurer; Tom Schuster, Reporter; Donn Mock, Sentinel; and Advisor, Mr. Haugen.

Girls' League

Girls' League started the year by sponsoring the first Family welcome. Friendship week and the Big Sister Council were held in the fall to acquaint all new girls with C.H.S. They sponsored the concessions booth during the football season. For social activities, the Dad-Daughter Banquet, a high school mixer, and the Mother-Daughter Banquet were held.

Every girl in high school becomes a member of Girls' League when she enrolls in high school. The officers elected were Shirley Spooner, President; Luella LaFreniere, Vice-President; Joanne Kube, Secretary; Jo Sanford, Treasurer; Karen Andersen, Historian. Representatives from classes were Janet Berry, Senior Representative; Joanne Daugherty, Junior Representative; Carol Beckman, Sophomore Representative. Miss Durocher was an able advisor.

Boys' Club

Boys' Club consists of every boy enrolled in the high school. Dick Wilson was the head of this vast part of the Family, with Frank Deering as Vice-President; Dan Kube, Secretary-Treasurer; and Mike Auer as Sergeant-at-Arms held order in their meetings. Mr. Miltenberger was their advisor.

The Boys' Club sponsored the intra-squad boxing matches, and the boys honored their fathers with the annual Father-Son Banquet held in the spring.

The Washington State College tumbling and gymnastics team performed for the Boys' Club and a large audience at Smith Hall on April 4. This was their last function of a very successful year.

Girls' Letter Club

Under the direction of Miss Durocher, the Girls' Letter Club has been very active this past year. Important activities the Letter Club held were two informal initiations, one in the fall and another in the late spring. For football and basketball games the girls made and sold pom-poms. Another important activity was the sponsoring of the volleyball play-day held here. The Letter Club worked hard and members were well rewarded for their work.

Officers of the Letter Club were headed by Sharon Baack, President, with Cherryol Coulter, Vice-President; Jeanette Ebert, Secretary-Treasurer; and Barbara Cagle, Sports Manager.

Boys' Letter Club

Boys' Letter Club had a very successful year and a prosperous one. The Letter Club changed our Family constitution. They set up some strict and rigid rules for wearing their letter sweaters. Other activities in which they participated were two informal initiations. The first initiation was held in the fall and the second initiation was undertaken in the spring.

The ambitious and efficient leaders of our organization were Earl Cash, President; Dan Kube, Vice-President; Richard Spooner, Secretary; and Mel Davenport, Sergeant-at-Arms. Mr. Moreman was their advisor.

Mr. Darnell, Jeanette Richardson, Barbara Peterson, Dick Renshaw, Howard Engle.

Office Girls

Gaining valuable office experience under the guidance of Mr. Kramer, Mr. Darnell and Mr. Michael, the office girls have had a very profitable year. For most of the girls this was their first year of operating the mimeograph and ditto machines. In addition to learning the use of these machines, the girls gained some practical experience in filing, typing and shorthand. If these jobs did not keep the girls busy, there were always the attendance reports to work on, plus running errands to the post office, outside buildings, and to the bank.

These girls have had a lot of practical experience which will be valuable to them in times to come. They have done a good job assisting in the procedures of the office.

Debate Team

The debate squad consisted of Howard Engle, Dick Renshaw, Jeanette Richardson and Barbara Peterson. Sandra York joined the squad during the season after Barbara moved from Clarkston early in January.

The debate team had an encouraging record throughout the season, winning first place in the South-eastern Washington Tournament. They also participated in an Invitational Tournament at Gonzaga, competing against 72 other teams. The squad was unable to place in this tournament. The team went to the State Debate Tournament at Pullman March 28th and 29th, where it participated with 24 other schools, placing fifth.

Yell Leaders

The pep in our Family was instilled and supported by three lively and alert yell leaders. Herbie Coulter was yell queen with Shirley Spooner and Merle Jeffreys as her active and capable assistants. We were proud to have these three very fine people represent our Family, and we believe they did a grand job throughout the 1951-52 school year.

Pep Club

The Pep Club is a group of boys and girls who are interested in sparking up the student body's pep. Their activities include selling of tickets, acting as ushers at sports events, decorating for football games and rallies, and also painting signs for assemblies.

Officers of the club are: Deane Jolstead, President; Sharon Baach, Vice-President; Cherryol Coulter, Secretary.

To this active group we give our sincere thanks for the enthusiasm they contributed.

Distributive Education

Distributive Education was again taught to the students who desired to earn money and also gain beneficial and practical experience in the business world. The D.E. students obtained jobs through their own personal interviews. Some of them went to work at two p. m., and the rest went right after school.

D.E. elected officers at the semester and these people handled planning and organizational responsibilities. In March most of the D.E. students went to the State D.E. Club convention at Spokane. Clayton Stone also attended a Board of Governors' Conference of the State Distributive Education Club held in Olympia. This proved another successful Family activity for C. H. S.

Visual Aids

Visual Aids is a class for boys who have an interest in projection machines and films. The boys work hard doing many jobs and errands in the film department. One of their most frequent activities is showing films to different classes.

Ordering films is also a part of their responsibility. The boys in this class deliver the films to other schools, repair and splice films, and the most important task is keeping the film projector in good running condition. At assemblies and other special occasions, these boys are called upon to show films.

Hi-Y

Richard Spooner was elected President of the Hi-Y boys. His able assistants were Doug Currin, Vice-President; Duane Sloppy, Secretary-Treasurer; Dave Weatherly, Chaplain; Earl Cash, Sergeant-at-Arms; and Ron Sullivan, Reporter and Custodian. Mr. Chapman was the first semester advisor and, after his transfer to Cheney, Mr. Michael was then the advisor.

After fall initiation, all the members took part in an area convention held at Clarkston. This was a huge success for the Clarkston Hi-Y boys.

Hi-Y's main purpose is to create and maintain the high standards of Christian character throughout the high school. This goal was effectively reached by this group of grand guys.

Library

The library class had as its teacher Mrs. Gladys Fleshman, who instructed students in the procedure of the work in the library. Here the students learned the intricacies of managing a library through practical experience. Among other duties, the students who had outstanding artistic ability took care of changing the bulletin board in the main hall and also the library board. The bulletin board was a great help in drawing our attention to the library and the excellent choice of reading material it contained.

Every member of the entire C.H.S. Family has had some benefit from these helpful people. The work they have accomplished has been very fine and the library is a more enjoyable place in which to read and study.

M A J O R E T T E S

The majorettes opened their season by making numerous and many varied performances in the fall at the football games. These high-steppers gave us much entertainment at basketball games ,assemblies and parades.

In April the majorettes went to the spring contest at Lewiston and did a fine job of representing the entire Family. They also attended the Lilac Festival in Spokane and looked very good marching with the band.

The majorettes worked long and hard hours under the capable leadership of Polly Surry. They have added a lot to the other numerous activities of the Family, and we have always been proud to see them doing their best.

Junior Class Play

"Men Are Like Street Cars," written by Christopher Sergel, was a humorous and very real and living play produced by the Junior class. Mr. Roy Hoover was the capable director of this three-act stage performance.

Joanne Daugherty as Maudie gave an outstanding performance as a teen-age cupid. She was very eager to fix a lovely love life for all her friends and immediate family. Everything worked out in the end, as it usually does, and they were all happy with the results.

The supporting players were Aubrey Sidwell, Di-Anna Shaeffer, Howard Engle, Joanne Kube, Carol Griffin, JoAnne Stroup, Jo Sanford, Arilldia Steinman, Marilyn Grasser, Gerry Yochum, Ed Sands, Donn Mock, Garry Miller and Betta Jameson.

Senior Class Play

The Senior class play was a melodrama, extremely well given by the class. Throughout the play was the old-fashioned suspense that was thrilling to all who saw and heard this three-act drama.

The cast was ably directed by Mr. Roy Hoover, who did a good job of producing this Family's first melodrama.

The cast was headed by Letty Nichols and Allan Broehl as the heroine and her rescuer. The supporting cast was Dale Banks, Violet Fromm, Bob Candler, Lauren McFarland, Darrell Storholt, Janice Jackson, Beverly Showers, Grace Chapman, Gerry Britton, Shirley Basinger and May June Barnett.

BAND COUNCIL

As the governing body of the band, the Band Council determines the type and extent of the band's activities. They carry their suggestions to the band and then present them to Mr. Harmon. This organization greatly aids in furthering the band's activities.

Band

Every member of the band contributed to the successful season they have had this year. By practicing and playing for the football games, the band got off to a very early start. Among other activities, they had two very good concerts, the annual fall concert and the Christmas concert in the winter. In the spring the band was very busy putting on the "Pops" concert, as well as practicing for May Music Week, the music contest at Lewiston, and the Lilac Festival.

Mr. Williams, the leader, put the band members through some stiff and rigid practices, but in the end it was all very worthwhile and an asset to our school and community.

Mr. Williams

Mr. Eddie Williams has led the band through his second successful year as instrumental leader.

His endless work with the band and the small ensembles has benefited all who have worked with him, and under Mr. Williams' able direction the band has given many successful performances at concerts and other school affairs.

We wish to express our gratitude for the ardent and skillful direction Mr. Williams has given this part of the Family.

Accompanists

Jeanette Richardson and Liz Skiles were chosen to accompany the Mixed Chorus, Girls' Sextet, Sophomore Girls' Quartet. They also were available at all times to offer their talent at various occasions for which they were called upon. Our many thanks to these two for providing so much talent in our family.

Mixed Chorus

This year has been a particularly eventful one for the Mixed Chorus. The members in this organization have gained benefits in singing, enjoyment, and music appreciation.

They performed for different occasions, as well as participating in the festival at Lewiston and the May Music Week program.

Mr. Gardner

Mr. Rex Gardner has been our very able vocal music director for the past three years. His hard work and eager determination has made the vocal department grow throughout the year.

Mr. Gardner was the capable supervisor of the Pep Club and this year also undertook coaching of the golf team, in both of which he did a good job.

With his fine musical interpretations and his undaunted enthusiasm, Mr. Gardner proved to be a great asset to this large Family.

Modern Dance

Modern dance was a prominent girls' activity again this year, for the third consecutive season. Two girls, Bette Lintula and Jackie Florance, have been very faithful participants. They are the only two girls who have danced in the group all three years.

The Modern Dance group had four performances this year. Early in the fall, "Serenade to a Lemonade" was put on at the fall concert. The Christmas concert included the versatile "Doll Dance," and the delightful

"Goldilocks and the Three Bears" was chosen for the Pop's Concert. May Music week was the group's last chance to perform. For this the droll "Fable of the Donkey" was told in nimble rhythm and motion.

Sharon Baack was chosen as the most outstanding dancer, and for her work in interpreting many of the dances. Cherryol Coulter also was an outstanding dancer with her agile and slender form.

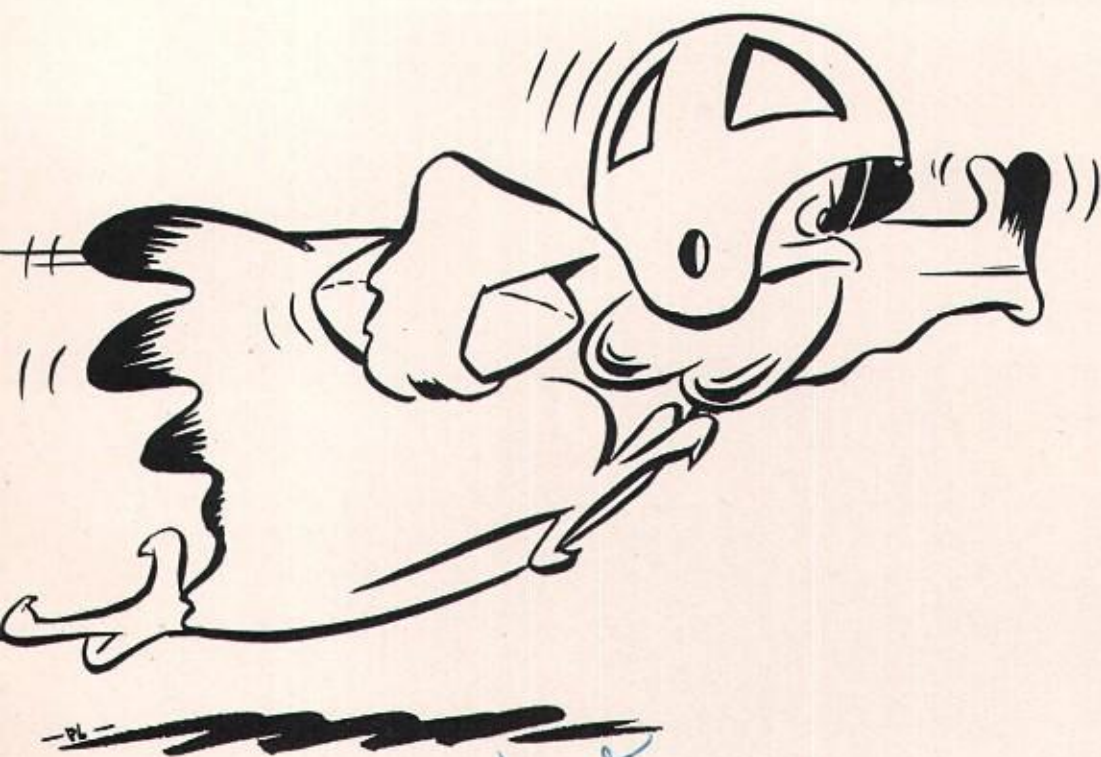

Cherryol Coulter, Margaret Gill, Shirley Spooner, Wilma McFarland, Bette Carol Lintula

May Festival

May Festival is the most outstanding of all the entertainments put on by the Clarkston school system. The first performance of this program was in 1935. Participants are students from the entire school system. Singing, dancing, tumbling, model airplanes, and operettas all play an important part in the program.

Traditionally, five senior girls are chosen, by a student body vote, to reign over the three festival nights. Later, the students select the queen of the festival from the five girls. Everyone is kept in suspense until the coronation of the queen the first night. Mayor Leroy Weeks crowns the queen. Candidates this year were Cherryol Coulter, Margaret Gill, Wilma McFarland, Shirley Spooner, and Bette Carol Lintula. The lucky girl to be crowned queen was thrilled and highly honored.

MR. PARRY

Completing his second year at Clarkston, Mr. Parry again did a fine job of coaching the football team to a favorable season ending. The team made it successful for him by winning both the Shrine and Turkey Day games with Lewiston. Mr. Parry also coaches B-squad basketball and turns out promising material for next year's A-squad. In the spring he takes over baseball. C. H. S. would like to wish Coach Parry the very best of luck while he is at Clarkston and in the future.

MR. MOREMAN

Completing his third year at Clarkston, Coach Moreman again did a fine job in taking the basketball team to State for the third time in succession. During the fall Mr. Moreman assisted in coaching football, both A and B squads. In the spring he takes over the track squad, which is always hard to beat. Students look forward to many more years of participation in activities under Mr. Moreman's supervision.

MR. MILTENBERGER

Mr. Miltenberger, another one of our fine coaches, rendered his top services this year by turning out a crack boxing squad, which had nine fights, winning eight and tying one. Coach Miltenberger took his boys to Pomeroy for the District Tournament in which they placed fourth. C. H. S. wishes to express their thanks to a fine coach.

MR. ADAMSON

This year we have a new coach on our staff. Mr. Adamson had charge of the B-squad football team, which had an average season. With coaching football and teaching at the Junior High, Mr. Adamson molded some fine material for next year's A-squad. We of the student body are proud to have a coach who can do so much with green material.

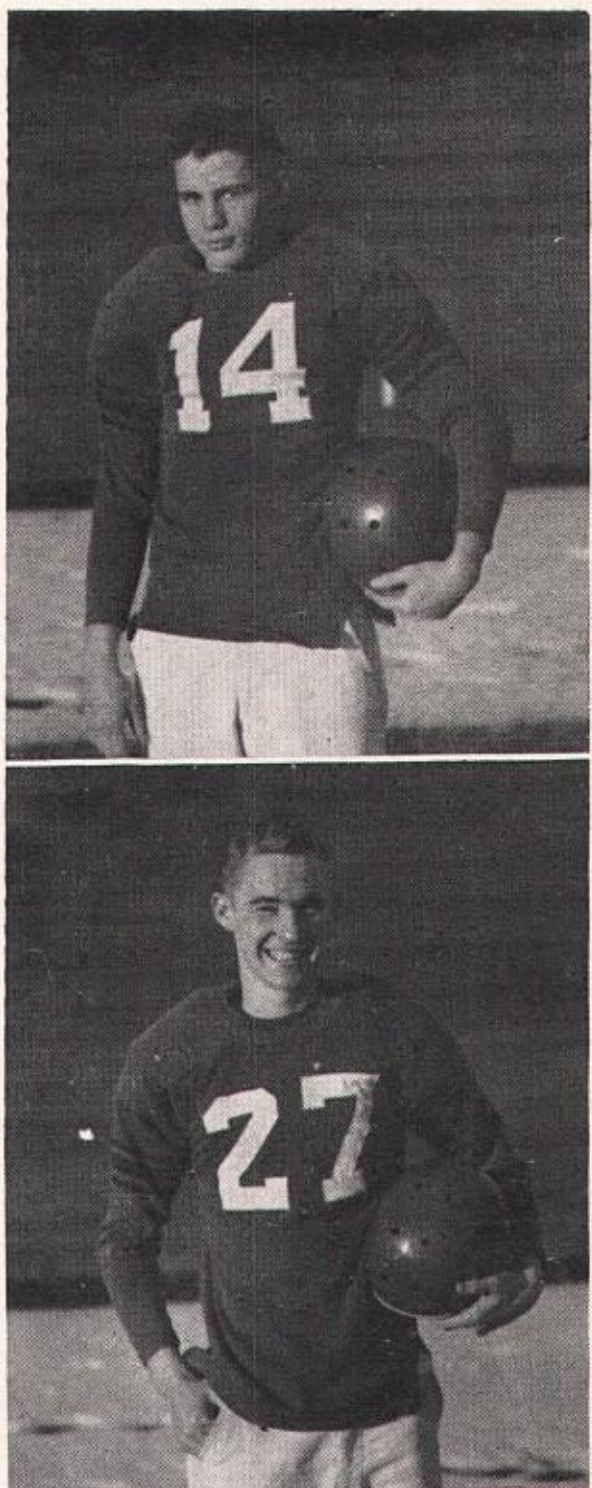

Gridders End Successful Season

When the 1951 football season came to a close, it found the Bantams with a record of four wins and five losses. Although off to a slow start, the Bantams showed impressive strength by defeating Lewiston both games for the first time in five years.

Highlighting the season was the Shrine game in which the Bantams showed tremendous power by shellacking the Bengals 27-0. The passing combination from halfback Ron Sullivan to end Lauren McFarland proved to be a consistent ground gainer. Both were selected for the Inland Empire All-Star team.

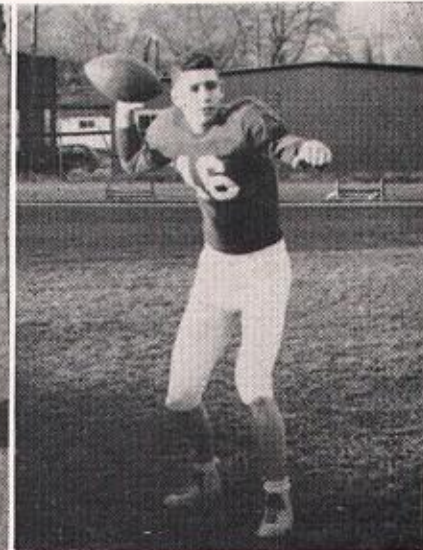

Dick Wilson and Duane Sloppy were chosen Captain and Inspiration, respectively, for this year's team. Both were outstanding throughout the season.

F O O T B A L L

Under the watchful eyes of Mr. Adamson and Mr. Moreman, the B-squad had a very good record this year, winning three, losing three and tying one. They showed a lot of promising material for the A-squad next year. The B's fought hard, winning two from Pullman, one from Moscow, and tying one with Lewiston.

To Mr. Adamson and Mr. Moreman we of C. H. S. want to express our thanks for their hard work.

A-Squad Basketball

"Three years in succession," seemed to be the familiar cry around C. H. S. when the Clarkston Bantams again went to State. The Bantams came through with flying colors, winning 14 and losing 4 in regular season play. Although the showing at State wasn't too impressive, they still showed fighting spirit in defeating some of the larger schools. Lewiston, our victim twice, was defeated by the fighting five 44-37 and 57-41.

C. H. S. is always proud of the A squad and this year we were doubly proud.

“B” Squad

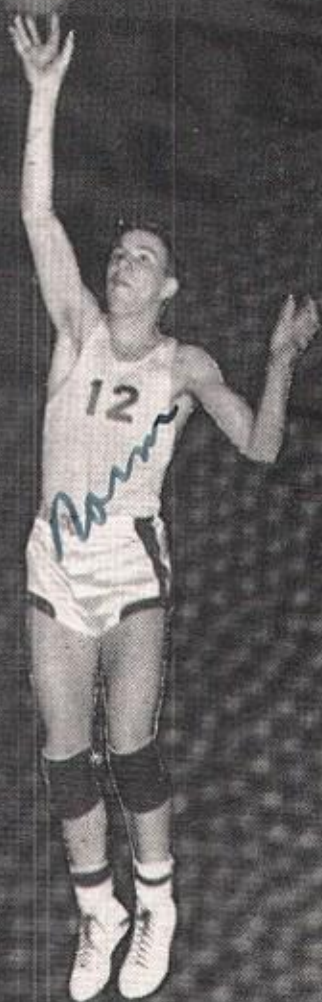

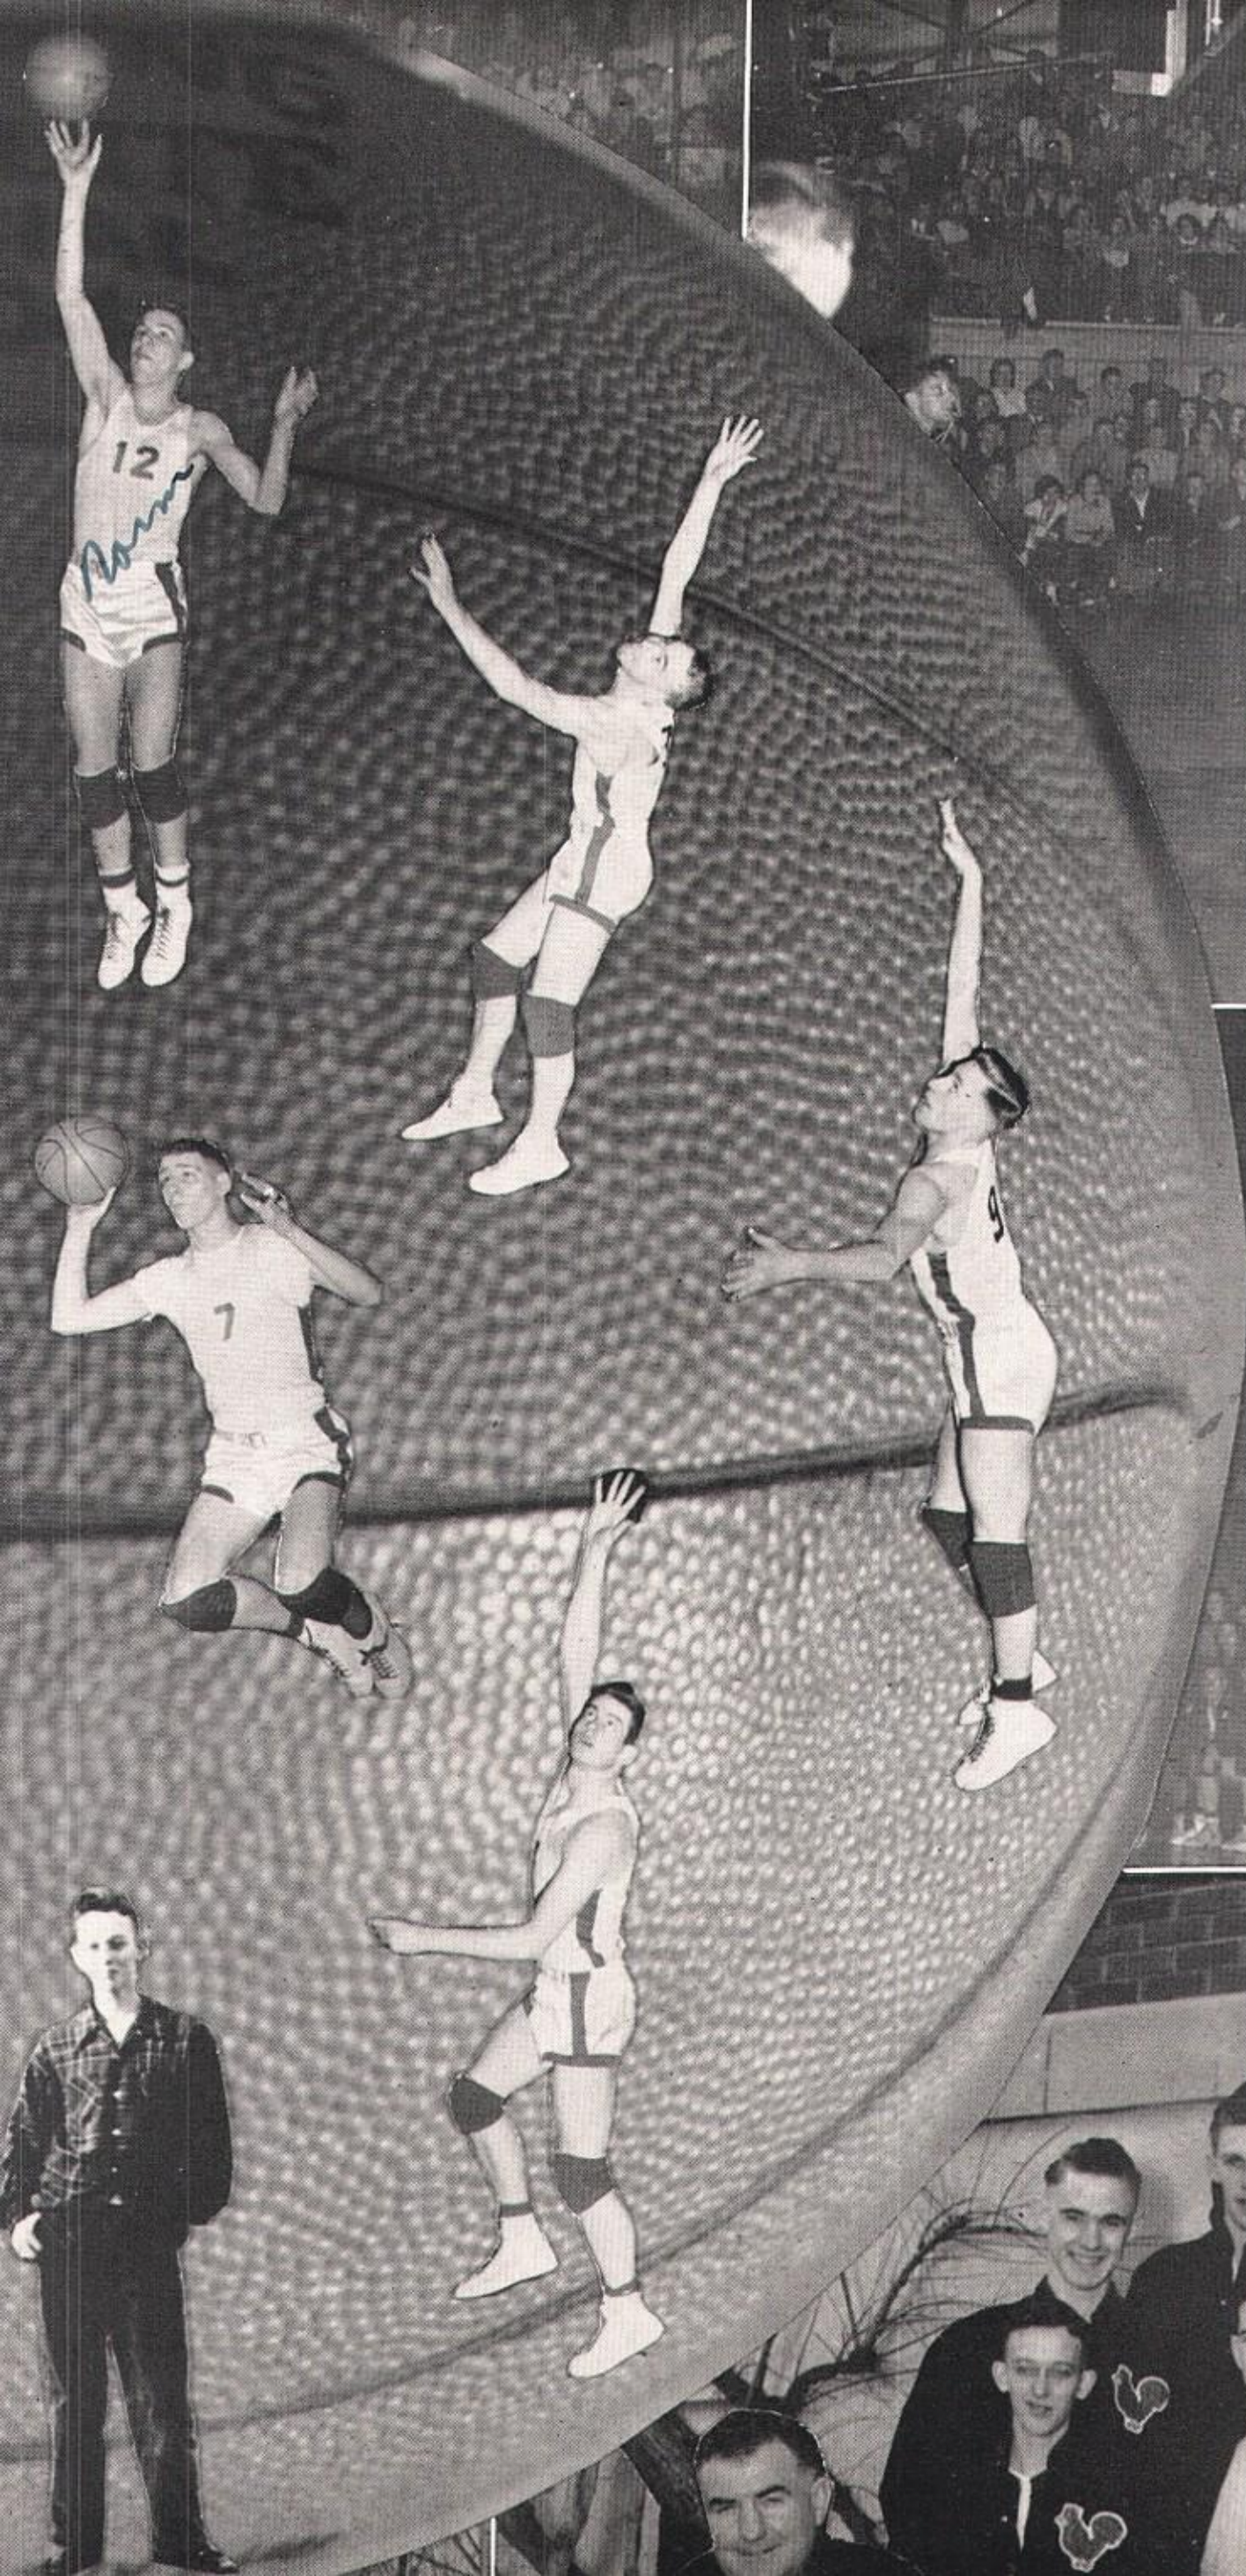

Starting weak and ending strong was this year's B-squad basketball team, coached by Tom Parry. The team won 6 and lost 8. Fourteen boys turned out, ten sophomores and four juniors. Their schedule consisted of 14 games with surrounding schools. Coach Parry turned out what looks like some promising material for next year's A-squad. Their schedule was as follows:

Boxers

Although experience was lacking in most of the divisions, the leather-tossing Bantams came through with great success.

Under the superb coaching of Joe Miltenberger, the Bantams fought their way to eight wins and one draw. The mittmen won from Orofino, Walla Walla, Dayton, Pomeroy and Colfax. The draw was the result of the first match with Colfax.

The Bantams placed fourth in the district tournament held at Pomeroy. A fighter, Mike Auer, of whom we are all proud, was awarded a trophy for being the most outstanding boxer in the tournament. The selection was on the basis of the coaches' decision.

Baseball

With six returning lettermen, the C. H. S. "Men of Swat" opened the season against Asotin. Returning lettermen were Dick Wilson, Mel Davenport, Clint Glover, Pete Weitz, Don Poe and Ron Sullivan.

After the Asotin tilt, the Bantam hitters tangled with Grangeville, Lapwai, Genesee, Pullman, Genesee, Lewiston, Lapwai, Wa-Hi, Lewiston, W. S. C., Lewiston, Asotin, Lewiston, Pullman and Colfax. We of C. H. S. are proud to have Coach Parry helping the team toward a successful season.

Track

With the coming of spring, the Clarkston cindermen took to the track.

There were five returning lettermen this year, which gave Coach Moreman an inexperienced squad. But under his careful eye the team developed rapidly and made a good showing during the season. Returning lettermen were Don Poe, Don Vail, Ronnie Sullivan, Mel Davenport and Bill Brooks.

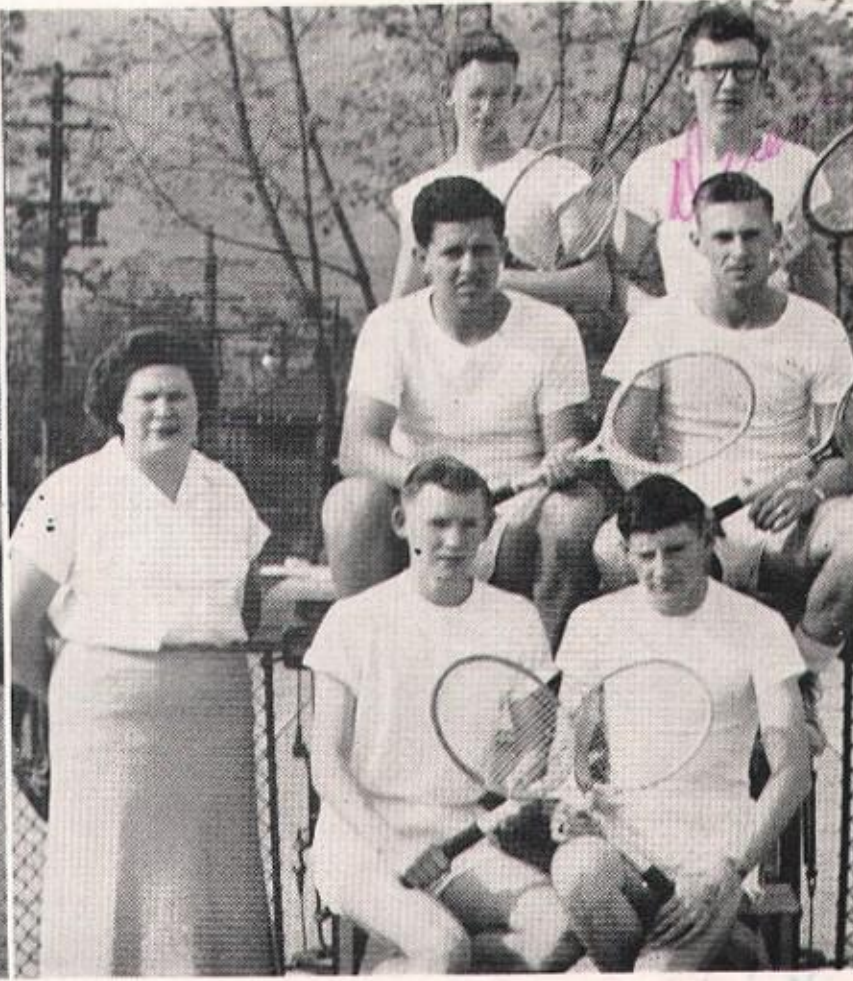

Golf

In early spring, C. H. S. divot diggers captured a third and a first in their first two golf meets, Wa-Hi invitational, March 29, and the Clarkston invitational, April 5. Coach Rex Gardner supervised. Bob Davis, Vern Lafrenz and Len Stroup were atop the ladder when the Bantam went to press. Lewiston, Moscow, Colfax, Dayton, and the championship at Lewiston are the remaining meets.

Ten Years From Now

KAREN ANDERSEN has replaced Mr. Axelson as Chemistry teacher at C. H. S. She is now teaching her students how to make atomic engines.

LAURA ROSE ANDERSON, GERALDINE BRITTON and SHIRLEY BASINGER are the final contestants in the Ma Jones soap contest. Each is fighting for the fabulous first prize of ten cents.

SHARON BAACK, employed by Paper Sacks, Fifth Avenue, as a model, was voted best-dressed woman of the year. Particularly lovely was an orange and pink sack, gathered around the waist with a length of garden hose, which she wore in the contest.

DALE BANKS is a missionary to Lower Northeast Ceylon. He sells television sets to the savages as a sideline.

ALICE and MAY BARNETT have moved to the North Pole where they have opened a boarding house for underprivileged polar bears.

CARMEN UGLEM, millionaire widow, has been married fourteen times, but each of her husbands has died of poisoned coffee. Police suspect foul play.

JACK BEYER was awarded his Ph.D. from Whitman College and is now teaching three-legged dogs to bark.

BILL BROOKS was the American choice to enter the mile in the Olympics which will be held at Hilton Springs. His record-shaking time is sixty-six minutes.

MILLIE BROWN is the new owner of the New York Pet Store, but she loves the animals so much she can't bear to sell any of them.

GRACE CHAPMAN is now living in Thermopolis, because her Clarkston friends wouldn't quit calling her "Grease."

ED CORY found he has so many tools and parts from Leland's Service Station that he quit and has now started his own garage service.

JEANETTE EBERT turned down Hank and has become an old maid and makes her living selling boxtops for contest entries.

BONNIE EVANS still has her love for children. She has opened a home for lost kids with money.

BERNARD and MARION EWING have formed a famous singing team. They are billed as the Ewing sisters. Bernard wears false hair in the act.

JACKIE FLORANCE has married and divorced John. She regained her maiden name and has returned to squeezing apples.

RICH GALLES and BILL KNOPES have just been released from their sentences at Sing Sing. They were apprehended for stealing old ladies' wheel chairs.

JANESE GEIDL is now giving driving lessons here at C. H. S. She has been awarded safe-driving awards for the last four years.

MAGGIE GILL JERALD, wife of Navy man TOM, was voted "mother of the year" in a recent nation-wide poll for the outstanding work she has done with her ten children.

JERRY GIRARD has returned to C. H. S. and is now principal. Evidently, he liked the time he spent in the office in high school.

CLINT GLOVER is second baseman for the Brooklyn Dodgers. He was voted the player most likely to be bat boy of the National League.

STAN GRANBERG and JANICE JACKSON have eloped, making this the most unusual wedding of all time, as she already has had six husbands.

MICKEY HUGHES has been a star figure in recent Washington Crime Investigations. Silent Hughes's only comment has been, "I refuse to answer on the grounds of coffee."

MARY JANE ISAKSEN and KATHLEEN JONES have formed a partnership in a new publishing business. They publish hot tips for hopeful horse-bettors.

CARROLL and ALVIN JOHNSON have changed their names to Johnsonovich and joined the Russian army.

DEANE JOLSTEAD'S music has proved an asset as he has become one of the "rhythm boys" and drained the slots at the Trio Club for $49,000,520.

GORDON KILMANIS has been voted Miss America of 1960 as there were no girls nearly so lovely.

VIOLET KING is running for dog catcher. She has a good chance of getting this as she has a way with dogs.

Ten Years From Now

DAN KUBE, famed minstrel singer, has just presented his rendition of "Mammy" before the president of the United States,

DEAN MARTIN. President Martin has just made a startling statement, "I do not choose to accept another term in office."

LUCILLE LaCOMBE and SHARLENE POE are touring the world as famed magicians. MARIE BEHLER was a member, but they made her disappear and she never reappeared.

JOYCE SLOPPY is married to one of the partners who own Whitman County and is living very happily on a farm in Colfax.

MARY SNYDER CASH has become the mother of another bouncing baby boy. This makes twelve children for the Cash family. EARL is now with the Highway Department sweeping streets. Oh, my aching back!

SHIRLEY SPOONER sits happily on the sidelines with her six kids while "papa" RONNIE SULLIVAN is busy coaching his professional New York Yankee football team.

CLAYTON STONE just received the honorary title of "the educated bum." He has spent many years in the hobo jungle to win this distinction.
